LABOR PEACE TALK HALTED

Deadlock On Questions Of Jurisdiction Said To Be Stumbling Block

NEW YORK. (AP)—A deadlock on jurisdictional questions, it was reported today, forced the 10-day recess in peace negotiations between the American Federation of Labor and the Congress of Industrial Organizations.

AFL peace negotiators left New York to confer with President Win. Green "on questions affecting progress of the negotiations."

It was reported without confirmation that the federation's executive council would be called into special session or polled privately on some CIO suggestions before the unity sessions resume March 24 in Washington.

It was said that the AFL committee will seek clarification of the precise meaning of an AFL council offer to take back without a challenge the CIO unions which formerly were in the federation. The CIO committee asked during negotiations whether this means return of their original charters or acceptance of the extended jurisdiction these unions have taken since labor split in 1936.

Slaughter Law Change Asked

Farm Bureau Sponsors 2 Legislative Bills To Aid Small Farmers

Substantial aid for small ranchers and dairymen of California is seen in two measures initiated by the California Farm Bureau Federation and presented to the Legislature as A. B. 2054 and A. B. 1277, under the authorship of Assemblyman Millington.

These measures, according to a statement made by B. E. Haslam, vice-chairman of the County Farm Bureau, are in the form of amendments to the present Meat Inspection Law, and Hide and Brand Act.

"The bills are designed to enable the small rancher or dairyman to slaughter calves from his own herd, on his own property, either for his own consumption, or for the sale of a limited number of such animals to retailers, hotels or restaurants," said Haslam.

"Under the present law, meat from bovine animals can be sold only by a licensed retailer with the extra proviso that such meat must be from animals slaughtered in a licensed slaughterhouse."

"If we are to advocate and promote living on the farm as part of the farm economy or the business of farming, then we must remove restrictions which penalize our small livestock men and compel them to compete with large commercial undertakings."

A companion measure, S. B. 995, with Senator Garrison as author, has been introduced in the Senate.

The Farm Bureau points out that sentiment for these measures, which are in the form of amendments also to the Agricultural Code, is strong throughout the entire state.

Chicken Theft Suspect Slain In Flight

FRESNO (AP)—Lester Monroe Ball, 44, was shot and beaten to death early today by three Japanese farm youths who found him running away from their chicken house.

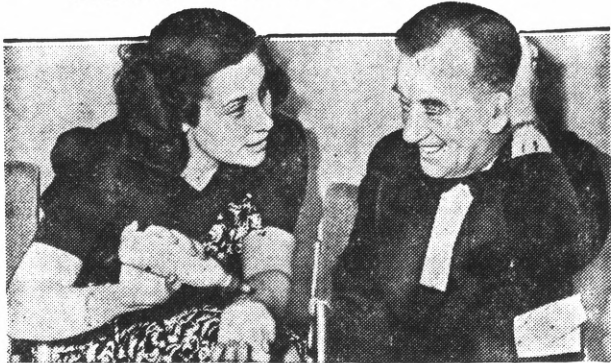

Deputy Sheriff C. A. Tarr said the youths, James, Toshio and Masao Mukai, all in their early twenties, would not be held in connection with Ball's death. Officials said Ball was convicted and sentenced to San Quentin Prison six years ago on a charge of stealing chickens.

Daughter Of L. A. Judge Feared Kidnaped

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—A statewide search was started Tuesday for Bebe Blake, 16-year-old daughter of Superior Judge Samuel R. Blake, who disappeared from her home early Monday. Judge Blake feared she had been kidnaped by someone seeking revenge for justice meted out in his court.

Eugene Kincaid, of the forest staff, was called suddenly to his former home in the southern part of the state Tuesday evening by the serious illness of his mother.

Eddie Guest a Granddad

Now that he's a grandfather, Edgar A. Guest is in the market again for instruction in the handling of babies. Ruth Doring, singer, demonstrates technique for testing temperature of baby's bottle while the newspaperman-poet watches and opines that the method seems vaguely familiar.

NEARLY 300 PUPILS ENTERED IN POSTER CONTEST

Interest In Conservation Week Program And In Art Study In Schools Demonstrated By General Participation In Community Event

The general interest throughout the county schools in the Conservation Week poster drawing contest concluded last Friday under auspices of the county Conservation Week committee, is reflected in the number of entries in the contest.

Nearly three hundred pupils participated, and some of them made two entries. Not many, however, were in this class.

In addition to the winners of major awards, the second place winners and those who received honorable mention for their efforts, there were an additional two hundred twenty-one pupils who submitted entries in the contest.

The general response in the contest has served to demonstrate the active interest of the pupils in Conservation, and also their interest in the study of art in their classrooms and reflects special credit on all of the pupils and their teachers.

The names of the pupils who entered in the contest but who were not listed among the prize winners were made public Tuesday afternoon by County School Superintendent K. W. McCoy. They are, listed by schools, as follows:

Coloma: Mildred Clough; Canyon Creek: Allen Balderston, Ralph Balderston, Glen Balderston, Norma Fowler, Ruth Fowler, Raymond Fowler; Croy Hollow: Billy Loy Johnson, Tom Liddicoat, Verne Odlin, Margaret Neely, Fran Grieve, Louise Branstetter; Cold Springs: Gladness Richter, Billy Cook, August Bacocini, Stanley Wilder, Elcener Richter, Naomi Richter, Mollie Denman, Vernon Cook, Marie Cook, Marian Shuman; Cool: Darnel Palmer; Cave Valley: Eleanor Niegel, Barbara Brady, Ethamay Brady, Mary Luper, Donald Lindquist, Walter Cox, Wilma Austin; Camino: Billy Lefever, Ray Gaunt, Patsy Cook, Norland Allison, Stanley Woodbridge, Howard Bittinger.

2 BASKETBALL GAMES ON SATURDAY NIGHT WITH MARTINEZ FIVES

Two exhibition basketball games are billed for Saturday night on the court at the Placerville Grammar School, in which Snowline, winner of the city league championship, and the All Stars, runners-up in the race, will meet two teams from Martinez.

The Martinez aggregation represents the Alhambra High School alumni, of Martinez, and the seven o'clock game, will pit Snowline against an aggregation which this year beat the Colored Ghosts 31 to 28, won the Contra Costa County P. A. A. title and were eliminated in the sectional play-offs at San Francisco by the Golden State, who are now playing for national honors at Denver.

The club which will go against the All Stars has played nineteen games this season against the fastest kind of company and has returned fourteen victories.

Arrangements for the games were made by Don Calicura, through contact with his brother, Nick, at Martinez.

"DOWN UNDER" LINKED

CANBERRA, Australia. (AP)—Flying boat service between Australia and New Zealand will soon be permanently established. The two governments are now arranging for the necessary radio and meteorological services.

SONS OF LEGION TO HAVE WEINER FEED ON MONDAY NIGHT

Placerville Squadron, Sons of the American Legion, will have a weiner feed at the Junior Community Hall on Monday night, according to Jack Emmerson, publicity chairman.

"We will also have boxing and wrestling besides our regular meeting. Non-members are invited if they bring their own weiners and buns," the announcement continues.

"At the last regular meeting Paul Smith issued some of the helmets for the drum and bugle corps. The drums have not arrived yet. He also showed us the posters and tickets for the benefit dance on April 8th."

Past Matrons, Patrons Meet Monday Night

The regular meeting of the Association of Past Matrons and Past Patrons in El Dorado County will be held Monday evening at the hall of St. Agnes Guild, at the Church of Our Saviour.

According to preparations for the meeting announced by the secretary, the evening will begin with a potluck supper at 6:30 o'clock following which the business meeting will be held. Entertainment will follow.

Soviet Watches Nazi Moves

6,000 Planes, More Than 2,500,000 Men Prepared, 18th Party Congress Told

MOSCOW. (AP)—Soviet Russia's peace time army strength is more than 2,500,000 men, defense commissar Klementi Voroshilov told the 18th communist party congress in an apparent warning against Nazi Germany's "march to the east."

With foreign observers speculating on whether Germany is heading toward the Soviet Ukraine, the Russian defense commissar declared the red army's great war plane fleet could carry 6000 tons of bombs in one mass flight and that it is ready "at any moment" to fight an invasion.

Voroshilov did not refer to Germany nor did he give specific figures on the manpower of the red army but he said its size and strength was doubled since 1934, which compares with the last published figures in 1935 of 1,300,000 men.

CLUB'S TRAVEL SECTION CONTINUES STUDY OF MEXICO

The regular meeting of the Travel Section met at the Placerville Shakespeare Clubhouse Tuesday, Mrs. Bennett presiding. Mrs. Wm. Caldwell of Camino read an article from National Geographic Magazine on the state of Oaxaca, by L. E. Morcy, describing the dress, habits and history of that part of Mexico.

Mrs. Eva Carpenter read about the Reign of Diaz, and excerpts from the book, "The Crimson Jester," by H. H. Dunn.

Mrs. Masters told of living in Mexico in 1909, during the Diaz-Madero Revolution, of hearing the men shouting "Viva Madero" and the general commotion of the town in which she lived, also of the grand satisfaction of returning to the United States soil, after her two year stay in Mexico.

Mrs. Minnie Gilmore told of her living in the quicksilver mines in Guadalupe, California, as a girl of seven years, with only Mexican children as playmates, the bull-fights on every possible occasion, but the height of sport being a fight between a grizzly bear and a bull. Mrs. Gilmore's father was superintendent of these mines, and the ruins of the adobe huts in which the miners lived, are close by.

The caravan to the Crocker Art Gallery is scheduled to leave the clubhouse March 21, at 11:30 a. m. to 12 noon, and to be at the gallery at 216 O Street, Sacramento at 1:45 p. m. sharp, rain or shine.

Members driving their cars are asked to take other members, so please meet at the clubhouse on time.

The date of the club's annual Spring Concert of the choral section has been tentatively set as Tuesday, May 23rd.

Miss Betty Lyon was home for the weekend from Marin Junior College. Mrs. Gertrude Rhud is here from Orland for a few days, visiting her mother and other relatives.

PASTOR AWAITS ORDINATION

Rex A. Barron Receives Charge As Episcopal Minister On Thursday

Rex A. Barron, who on March 9th completed a probationary year in the ministry of the Episcopal Church, will be ordained as a minister of the church in a service on Thursday morning at the Bishop's Chapel, Sacramento.

The service will be conducted by the Right Rev. Noel Porter, D. D., Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Sacramento, and members of the Episcopal clergy of the Sacramento region will share in the exercises.

Mr. Barron will be presented as a candidate for ordination by the Rev. Sumner Walters, of Christ's Church, Alameda, of which Mr. Barron was a member for fifteen years, serving for three years as a member of the vestry.

Dean Farlander, of Santa Rosa, will give the ordination sermon and the Rev. Freeland, of Marysville, will be the liturgist for the service.

Others who will share in the rites include the Rev. Cyril Leitch, of Willows; the Rev. C. W. Pearson, of Napa; the Rev. Blake Hadlow, of Auburn; Canon Hermitage, of Sacramento; and the Rev. C. E. Farrar, of Berkeley.

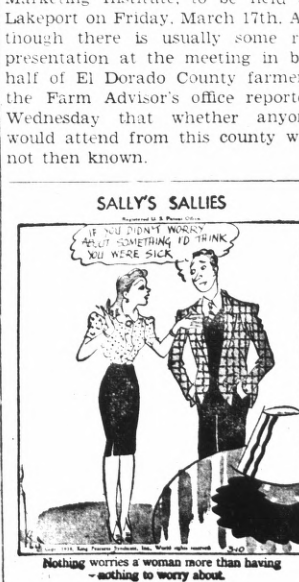

Mr. Barron was educated at McGill University, in Montreal, and received his theological training at the Associated Colleges in that city. Although he is a graduate in law at the University of Alberta, Canada, he never entered upon a legal practice but turned his attention to the business world.

For several terms, he was Superintendent of Schools in the province of Alberta and although he moved to California in 1922, he continued in business in Alberta until 1936.

A year ago, Mr. Barron accepted the opportunity to become a minister of the church in the Placerville parish and has completed the probationary period requisite to making application for ordination and has as well passed the various examinations designed to establish his qualifications to fulfill the responsibilities of the position to which he is now to be advanced.

Marketing Institute On March 17th

Farm Advisor Ivan W. Lilley has received word of plans for the eighth annual Northern California Marketing Institute, to be held at Lakeport on Friday, March 17th. Although there is usually some representation at the meeting in behalf of El Dorado County farmers, the Farm Advisor's office reported Wednesday that whether anyone would attend from this county was not known.

Expanding Governmental Functions In Recent Years Increases Number Of Workers, Solons Told; Periodic Salary Increases Are "Automatic"

By JOHN W. DUNLAP

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

SACRAMENTO. (AP)—Representatives of the approximately 30,000 employees of the state of California today protested attempts to effect governmental economies by declaring a moratorium on previously promised salary increases.

A statement by Assemblyman Gerald C. Kepple, R., Whittier, that he favored a two-year moratorium on state salary raises was bitterly

Posters May Be Shown At World's Fair

The winning posters in the Conservation Week contest may be shown at the World's Fair at Treasure Island, if arrangements undertaken by School Superintendent K. W. McCoy are successful.

This was revealed Wednesday in a summary of the activities of Conservation Week in the county, issued by the committee in charge. The summary extended the thanks of the committee to all of those who participated in the program of the week and the poster contest, and especially to the judges of the poster contest.

Acknowledgement also was made of the receipt of contributions to the poster contest prize fund, from the Chamber of Commerce, American Legion, Lions Club, El Dorado Rod and Gun Club and the Mt. Ralston Fish Planting Club.

The Conservation Week Committee had Swift Berry as chairman, Forest Supervisor Edwin F. Smith as secretary, and Eugene Kincaid as publicity officer. To them we extend our thanks for their co-operation.

Bears Go North For Title Series

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—University of California's basketball team will leave by train tonight for the Pacific northwest to meet Oregon's webfoot at Eugene in a series that will determine the coast conference championship and bring the winner a chance at the national NCAA crown. Coach Nibs Price said his 12 man squad was in fine trim for the games, which start Thursday.

$150,000,000 Relief Request Supported

WASHINGTON. (AP)—Chairman Edward T. Taylor, D., Colo., of the house appropriations committee today placed his support behind President Roosevelt's requests for $150,000,000 additional relief funds.

attacked before a meeting of the assembly ways and means committee by John Hamlyn, attorney for the California State Employees' Association.

Executive secretary Louis Kroeger of the state personnel board explained, at the request of the committee, heavy increases in the number of state employees during recent years were due to expanding governmental functions. He added that periodic salary raises were provided by the state civil service act for employees maintaining a certain efficiency rating.

The senate committee on constitutional amendments recommended submission to the voters of two measures, to cancel liens taken on homes under the state's original old age assistance program, and to eliminate a "short cut" by which initiative measures may be placed on the ballot by obtaining five per cent instead of the usual eight per cent of the voters at the last election.

The legislature undertook previously to cancel the liens for aged aid by law, but the provision was declared unconstitutional, making it necessary to submit the issue to a popular vote.

The economy issue was squarely on the assembly side today after approval by the senate of a bill by Senator Randolph Collier, Jr., Yreka, designed to reduce the number of deficiency appropriations in the future by removing the present authority of the governor and director of finance to authorize expenditures in excess of departmental budgets.

The senate passed three current deficiency bills after approving the Collier bill. One of the three, providing $60,000 for the motor vehicle department to meet February payrolls, was later passed by the assembly and went to Gov. Culbert Olson for signature. The others allotted $478,000 to the division of forestry and $19,700 to the California Nautical School.

Tessemlyman Sam Yorty, D., Los Angeles, said he had received information that some of the state's best known bars have been guilty of "bootlegging" by refilling standard bottles with diluted and inferior liquors.

First Amateur Night Friday

Tap Dancers, Vocalists And Instrumentalists Billed For Program

The first of the series of three annual "amateur nights," sponsored at the Empire Theater by El Dorado Post No. 119, American Legion, will be held Friday night.

According to Thomas Maul, chairman, the vaudeville presentations will be from the stage immediately following the first motion picture show of the evening and seven or eight numbers will be on the program, including tap dancers, vocalists and instrumentalists.

This first presentation will be in the nature of a preliminary in the contest and the winners on Friday night will compete for grand awards on the third "amateur night" which will be on March 31.

The second preliminary will be held on Friday night, March 24, to qualify other competitors for the grand awards.

Mr. Maul reports that amateurs interested in entering the contest may qualify for appearance on the March 24 program if they will apply at the office of L. J. Anderson before 5 o'clock on March 22.

The contest is strictly an amateur event and anyone who has had professional experience is not eligible.

Mrs. Harry Gregory, of Oakland, who has been here for several days assisting in the care of Mrs. George Gregory, who has been ill, returns to Oakland on Thursday. Friends will be glad to know that the elder Mrs. Gregory is reported much improved.

Sports Parade

By HENRY McLEMORE

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., (UP)—As one grows older the old familiar things grow dearer. Though I am not yet quite to the age where I have silver threads among the red, I find myself yearning for the things I used to do.

Out in California I suddenly suffered an acute attack of nostalgia. For a few days I couldn't decide what my longing was for, and seeking a solution I tried jackstraws, drop the handkerchief, spin the bottle and other games of my childhood. On the off chance that it was the south I missed, I played Swanee River on the Victrola and fried myself a chicken.

These didn't work so I went out in my imagination I got myself whipped behind the woodshed, and forced myself to do the last five minutes of churning on an ice cream freezer, which, as some of you will remember, is when the churning gets really tough and you have to put your legs around it to keep it from bouncing off the back porch.

All of these things failed to fill some vacant spot in my heart; failed to answer a longing that I had. Then, quite accidentally, I saw a dispatch from Florida that the time of year had come when the baseball managers were picking the winners in the various leagues.

My heart leaped when I beheld the first prediction — the Detroit Tigers in second place. All of a sudden, in one great rush, I knew what I was longing for. Not the old songs my mother sang, or the old biscuits that we had the next day, but the old predictions of old baseball managers on how their teams would finish. Even before I had finished reading the little dispatch from Florida, the old refrain was running through my head: I don't know who writes the baseball managerial music but here are the words:

If we are lucky, we'll be in the first division . . . the team that beats us will know its been in a fight . . . if our third baseman comes through . . . if we get our share of the breaks . . . I never have seen a team with such spirit . . . he was overweight last year, but you should see him now . . . if our club plays the same kind of ball during the season that it has

"EXPOSED" AT EMPIRE IS DRAMA OF CAMERA TRICKERY

When newspaper photographers developed the candid camera, they furnished themselves a serious rival in the journalistic field.

Research experts who worked on "Exposed," Universal picture with Glenda Farrell and Otto Kruger, the Wednesday feature at the Empire theatre, discovered an ironic fact. The candid camera, which has placed a score of magazines on news stands during the past few years, was originally developed by newspaper cameramen.

As long as fifteen years ago, when news photographers were barred from exclusive functions, such as society weddings, they began to develop smaller and faster cameras that could be carried without detection.

Now "Exposed," which presents Miss Farrell as a candid camera girl, shows how important the picture news magazines have become to the readers of today.

RELIEF FOOD STAMP EXPERIMENT MAY START ABOUT APRIL 15 IN SIX KEY CITIES OF 50,000 TO 300,000 PEOPLE

WASHINGTON (UP)—Government and business joined today in a concrete step toward increased cooperation with a food subsidy plan designed to increase purchasing power for relief workers and reduce farm surpluses.

The plan, to be experimented with in six medium sized cities, will establish a precedent in government efforts to close the gap between food surpluses and undernourished millions.

The food and grocery store committee, comprising representatives of food processors, wholesalers and retailers, unanimously endorsed the program.

Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace, in announcing the plan at a meeting of the committee, appealed to business for "aggressive help" in a "united front to find the way to plenty." If the plan is successful he said, "the day is not far distant when all the people in the United States will be adequately nourished."

The plan was devised by the Federal Surplus Corp., an agriculture department agency, in cooperation with other government departments and grocery trade groups. It is based on the issuance of two stamps—one orange-colored, the other blue. The orange stamps will be sold relief clients and will be exchangeable at any grocery store for all varieties of food. Blue stamps will be given gratis purchasers of Orange stamps and be exchanged for surplus foods only.

Officials hope to inaugurate experiments of the plan by April 15 in six cities of between 50,000 and 300,000 population.

MIDGET COMPLAINS BRIDE WED HIM ONLY FOR NOTORIETY

HOLLYWOOD (UP)—A movie midget only 3 feet 7 inches tall today accused his 6 foot 4 inch bride of marrying him as a publicity stunt. He said he had believed she loved him.

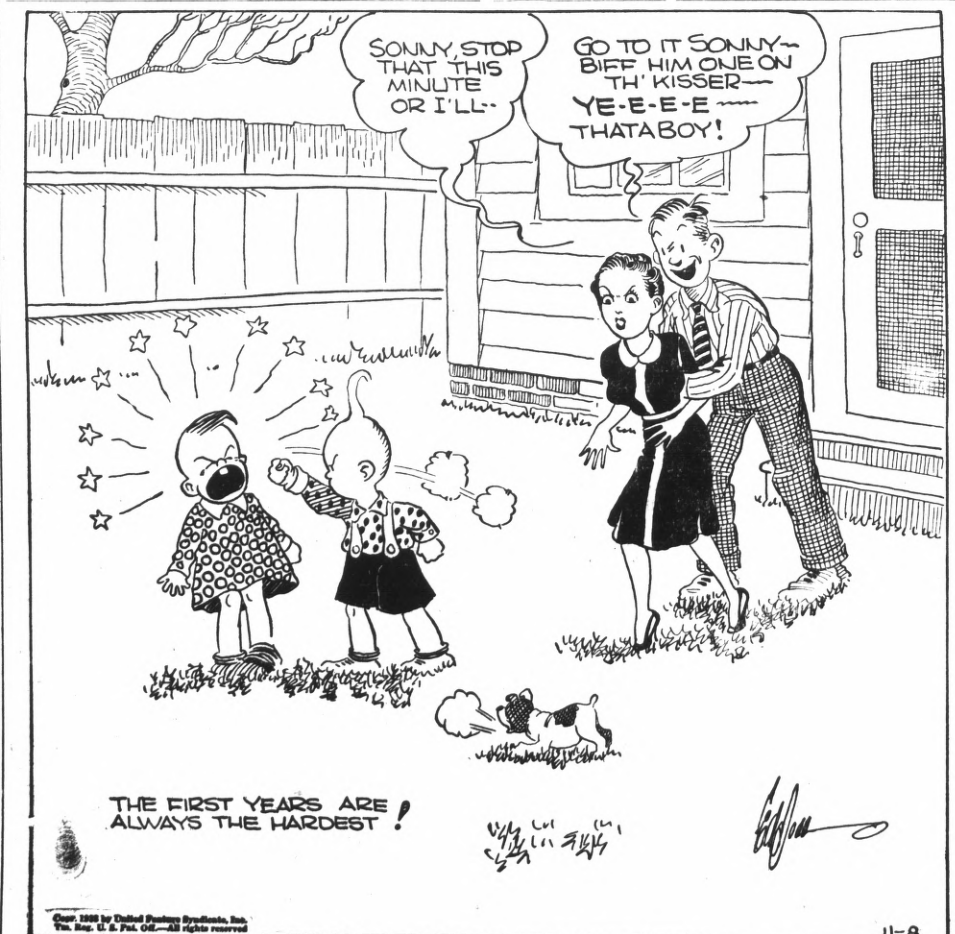

Billy Curtis, who weighs 75 pounds and bills himself as "The world's handsomest midget," made the charges in a suit to annul his marriage to Lois De-Pee, a lady midget, on Jan. 19, 1938, and posed for a wedding picture with Billy sitting on his bride's lap.

Curtis complained that he had believed her declarations of love and affection but after the ceremony she

Do you wonder that I am hurrying to Florida? Nothing is older and more familiar to me than the song of the managers. It takes me back across the years to the days when I was a beginner as a sports reporter. They sang it then, they sing it now. Nothing is changed. Not even the setting. A hotel lobby, deep cushioned chairs, with a red-necked baseball player in every one; me, without ties slouching awkwardly about the cigar counter; rough laughter; slot machines; horse play, sunshine and early mornings.

Gold Star Method of Reward Success

Letter from One of Dr. Myers' Readers Reveals How Child Overcame Timidity at School

By GARRY C. MYERS, Ph.D.
WRITES a mother from Iowa: "I have a little girl six years old who, until recently, would suck her thumb on going to bed. I read one day in your column your suggestion about rewarding children with gold stars. I tried this and to my surprise it worked. There has been only one night since I started this that I have found her with her thumb in her mouth."

From Minneapolis comes this: "In an ungraded class a first year pupil would get up and go home when called on to recite in class. His mother brought him back, telling the teacher to punish him. The teacher put him to sit with an older brother and gave him pencil and paper and an outline book to copy from, saying, 'I wonder if you can make these.'"

Mother Disapproved
"His mother went home disapproving. The elder brother was induced at school to give him quiet suggestions. About two weeks later, one day he surprised the class by coming voluntarily to recite and came into his class when they recited afterwards. He had conquered his own timidity and was a successful pupil later. This helps to prove your plan: If there is no wilful disobedience, allow children to think for themselves with our advice."

Thank God for patient, sympathetic, understanding teachers.
From Toledo, Ohio:
"Seven years ago you advised a mother that a child might be able to go to the store when ready for kindergarten. I took your advice. At seven my daughter began to go downtown to shop, to market, to the dentist. Large purchases were sent C. O. D. I didn't think it wise to have her charge them. The clerks say she is quick to decide and knows what she wants. I appreciate the interest they take in what she buys."

Value of Money
"Now, at eleven, she knows the value of money, and there are few things that she can't buy alone, whether it's food or clothing. She does practically all my shopping, as she likes to do it, and pays bills for me. At first I pinned the money in her pocket. Only twice has she lost small change. I find her truthful."

Would you like to have a free list of books designed to help parents to be happier and better parents? If so, write me in care of this paper, enclosing a self-addressed envelope with a three-cent stamp on it. In like manner you may receive a graded list of good books for children of school age to read.

From Toledo, Ohio:
"Seven years ago you advised a mother that a child might be able to go to the store when ready for kindergarten. I took your advice. At seven my daughter began to go downtown to shop, to market, to the dentist. Large purchases were sent C. O. D. I didn't think it wise to have her charge them. The clerks say she is quick to decide and knows what she wants. I appreciate the interest they take in what she buys."

Value of Money
"Now, at eleven, she knows the value of money, and there are few things that she can't buy alone, whether it's food or clothing. She does practically all my shopping, as she likes to do it, and pays bills for me. At first I pinned the money in her pocket. Only twice has she lost small change. I find her truthful."

Would you like to have a free list of books designed to help parents to be happier and better parents? If so, write me in care of this paper, enclosing a self-addressed envelope with a three-cent stamp on it. In like manner you may receive a graded list of good books for children of school age to read.

obedience, allow children to think for themselves with our advice."

Thank God for patient, sympathetic, understanding teachers.

A radio theater is the KSFO 6 o'clock offering, paving the way for Professor Kay Kyser's Kollege which convenes on KPO at seven. If the professor doesn't seem to be possessed of the necessary teaching psychology to hold your interest, Mr. Raymond Page has a program which is usually interesting on KSFO at the same time.

Amos and Andy on KPO are followed at 8:15 by Lum and Abner, but you'll have to jump to KSFO to join the boys at Pine Ridge. At half past eight, Tom Dorsey "gives" for KPOers and Mr. Whiteman has a program on KSFO.

Ten-thousand! The twentieth anniversary of the American Legion will be commemorated in a program starting at 8:15 on KGO.

Town hall meets at nine o'clock. KPO, and another gang bites the dust on KSFO at the same time, while KGO at 9:15 serves up a "jubilee revue" which is a rather intriguing title.

Collier, Advertising Mogul, Succumbs

NEW YORK, (AP)—Barron G. Collier, who made an industry out of street car advertising and developed New York's Coney Island and Florida's Tamiami Trail, died late yesterday. He was 65. Collier's firms controlled advertising on almost all street cars, subways and elevated trains in the United States, Mexico, Canada, Puerto Rico, Hawaii and the Philippines.

THE HOLLYWOOD LAMPLIGHTER

By WILSON BURT

HOLLYWOOD—Why censorship? Well, no one seems to know exactly "WHY" such a distorting and misleading form of suppression should "lawfully" be thrust upon the social and business world. Regardless, however, many of the "thinking" class find that beating some ridiculous and narrow law is not only a profitable procedure but a moral victory. As a very brief example we shall mention a newspaper in Tampa, Florida. This publication does not permit the use of the word, "SEX" to advertise or boost the exotic or "passion" type of picture. In due respect for this ban, the Broadway Theatre way down yonder in good old Tampa bought space in said newspaper to advertise "Race Suicide" and strangely—singularly—the copy which employed only one adjective was accepted. In box card letters beamed forth the word—"SEXual."

It appears to be a pretty fair wager that the cartoon business will soon augment its staff with a brand new college professor. This man will probably be first seen standing around the employment window of Walt Disney's hide-out. Quite recently Dr. Robert Durant Field, a professor in the Harvard Fine Arts Department has been dismissed. This is the "prof" who last year found that Walt Disney's Mickey Mouse was "ART" and henceforth led to two Harvard honorary master's degrees for Disney. Anyway, Walt, there is always a certain amount of "tinkering" that someone has to do around a studio.

ALL IS FAIR IN LOVE AND WAR but make believe is something else. The Warner's production, "Confessions of a Nazi Spy," caused the one-man walk-out of an extra, Horace Brown. Seems that Brown who was wearing a Nazi uniform with swastika armband refused to obey instructions and salute a character representing Adolph Hitler. "No Sir," said Horace upon leaving the set. "I don't need the money that bad."

The story comes down the line that Paramount boasts of having two "naturals" when it comes to women who like to fight. And they DO mean nothing short of a little hair pulling. For some South American cafe scenes in "The Magnificent Fraud," Steffi Duna and Barbara Pepper were beating each other to a draw for Lloyd Nolan's attention. As a result they were supposed to start fist fighting it out until Nolan broke in. After the exchange of a few punches they began to really sling into one another and not seeing Nolan, let him have one right smack in the back. Instead of the girls going down the line for "breaking" a scene, director, Robert Florey said it was the most wonderful two hundred feet of film

Hitler Enters Czech Capital

BERLIN, (UP)—Adolph Hitler crossed the frontier into Czechoslovakia enroute to Prague at about 5 p. m. it was announced tonight in official sources.

It was a triumph tinged with potential tragedy. Hitler's soldiers were booed and hissed as they entered Prague, the Czech capital.

Hitler also sent German troops into the new and "independent" state of Slovakia, amputated from Czechoslovakia, on the ground that Premier Josef Tiso had appealed for his aid against Polish troops who, it was said, had entered the country.

Hungary issued an ultimatum to the new state of Carpatho-Ukraine third unit of the dismembered Czech-Slovak republic demanding that its government surrender power by 8 p. m. (1 p. m. CST).

Serious clashes were reported between Hungarian troops and members of the Carpatho-Ukrainian separatist guards.

Forest Supervisor Smith and Assistant Forester A. N. Weber were at San Francisco Wednesday on official business.

he had ever had anything to do with. Even if Nolan was "out for the rest of the day."

DOING A LITTLE HITTING AND MISSING FOR THE GEORGE RAFT PICTURE, "The Lady's From Kentucky," Hugh Herbert spent some time musing around the studio. In his ramblings he encountered a rather desperate looking publicity writer. "You look a little pale under the gills," said Herbert. "Yes," said the writer, "I've been burning the midnight oil." "Burning it," replied Herbert, "you look as though you've been drinking it."

Hollywood show girls have been warned lately that something almost in the form of a disease is ruining their figures. This plague has been identified by dance maestro, LeRoy Prinz, as the "PHOTO SLOUCH"—or the first thing that every pretty girl does when a camera is focused on her, full length. Ten to one that the quick-eyed boy, winksters were aware of this little item some time ago but it took Jimmie Roosevelt to spot this unsmooth posture of girls this unreally beautiful. Perhaps M.G.M. can use the boy, after all.

Notice to the Public: Thirty-four anti-trust suits, alleging violation of the Sherman or Clayton Act, or state anti-trust acts, were pending or disposed of during the past year. Twenty-two suits seek or sought recovery of more than $22,000,000 in damages, besides relief, with 12 of the suits not mentioning monetary damages.

To be sincere, I think the box-office is on the right side of the fence after all.

These men are your neighbors

When we say that Bank of America is a local bank we mean that in each of the communities where its branches are located the bank is under the direction and management of local residents. These men and women are your neighbors. They understand local conditions of business and agriculture and they operate Bank of America so that its services meet these conditions.

Here are the men who manage Bank of America and direct its policies in this community:

"Service that sparkles"

THIS COUNTRY leads the world in telephone service because it leads in telephone research.

The constant aim is to give you, at all times, not only the best and the most telephone service at the lowest possible cost, but service in the spirit of a friend.

Thousands of scientists, engineers and their assistants are constantly at work in the Bell Telephone Laboratories to make the service faster, clearer and more economical.
